The Commission posted the Redacted Examiner's Report on its Website on July 13, 1998 to facilitate quick access by the parties to this proceeding, given the expedited schedule in this case. Unfortunately, the website document when printed, or in some cases when shown on a computer screen, revealed confidential information text through the shading thereon.

Persons, other than Central Maine Power Company, the Public Advocate and the Commission and persons associated therewith, who possess copies of the confidential information contained in the imperfectly redacted Examiner's Report obtained on the web between approximately 5:15 p.m. on July 13th and 10 a.m. on July 14th (EST) are directed to immediately destroy them. This inadvertently revealed information shall not be communicated to any other person and shall not be used for any purpose other than the conduct of this proceeding. All written or electronically recorded notes containing confidential information shall be immediately destroyed. Parties remain bound by the terms of the protective orders issued in this proceeding as a matter of law.

A re-redacted version of the Examiner's Report, with all sensitive information deleted therefrom, will be posted on the Web later today. "Non-confidential" parties and persons are advised to use the re-redacted version or the properly redacted paper version distributed by the Commission for this proceeding.
